

1/30/67

from Dean Arleigh Williams

as of 1/30 letters sent to 75 students:

- 39 received written censure
- 7 received written warning
- 7 recommended for disciplinary probation -- have until Wednesday to appeal (i.e. request a hearing before faculty committee on student discipline) -- final decision on dean's recommendation (or faculty committee recommendation if hearings held) to be made by chancellor -- recommended by dean the probation be imposed until June 13 (with possibility of review on May 1)
- 11 charges dismissed
- 11 no longer in school (but would be required to attend a hearing before being considered for readmission)

(16 letters still to be sent -- no breakdown on these as yet)
