

Looters

The Looters were a socially active San Francisco group fronted by Mat Callahan that were popular in the city's world beat scene of the 1980's. They were intelligent, energetic, political and passionate with a blend of rock with funk and latin overtones. They were the first US band to perform in Nicaragua after the revolution.

Join Looters founder Mat Callahan, Poet Nina Serrano & surprise guests

Friday, May 3rd at 7pm 518 Valencia - San Francisco

a benefit to restore historic Nicaragua footage

Sponsored by the Freedom Archives * www.freedomarchives.org