

“Education: The Bedrock of Democracy”

Fundraising Event to Promote Health and Education In Haiti

When: Wednesday, July 24, 2013
7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Where: Trinity United Methodist Church
2362 Bancroft Way, Berkeley

Program:

The speakers invite you to look at the status of education in Haiti from elementary school to higher education, including UniFA (the Aristide Foundation Medical School), its implications for the majority of the population, and the dire need of support.

Panel Moderator: Mr. Robert Roth, Educator and Activist.

Panel: Professor Leslie Fleming, Professor at Merritt College, Educator Ayana Labossiere & Student Tina Ma, recently returned from Mission High School's delegation to Haiti, and Ms. Tina Flores, President of Quality Medical Relief International.

Closing Remarks: Mr. Pierre Labossiere, Haitian Activist.

Host: East Bay Sanctuary Covenant's Haiti Education Program (HEP).

Co-sponsors: Haiti Emergency Relief Fund (HERF) and the Haiti Action Committee (HAC).

All proceeds from this event will be donated to benefit the education of the most needy children in Haiti, and to support higher education through UniFA (The University of the Aristide Foundation).

Please make checks payable to: EBSC
