Close Marion and Lexington Control Units! - basic 4-page brochure providing our overview and analysis of Control Unit prisons	free
The Crime of Black Imprisonment - an op-ed piece from the Chicago Tribune describing the racist nature of the U.S. prison system	free
Political Prisoners in the U.S. - a column from the S.F. Examiner maintaining that Control Unit prisons incarcerate political prisoners	free
Health Issues at Marion - a detailed 4-page analysis of the health situation at Marion, written by political prisoner Tim Blunk	$.25
Inside the Lockdown - transcription of the National Public Radio two-part series on Marion, including interviews with prisoners and guards; attractively produced 16-page pamphlet	$1.00 + .50 post
Amnesty International Report - the first time ever that AI has condemned a U.S. prison; this hard-hitting report demonstrates that Marion is in violation of virtually every one of the U.N.'s standard minimum rules for prisoners	$2.00 + .50 post
Transcript of the People's Tribunal to Expose the Crimes of Marion and Lexington - this transcription of the day long conference, in October of 1987, features testimony from 20 witnesses, and verdicts and statements from eight justices including Dave Dellinger, Akinyele Umoja, Dora Garcia, Morton Sobell, and others. This was a unique event and the transcription is moving and powerful.	$6 + $1.50 post
Shut Down the Control Units! Slideshow - this 30-minute slideshow, with audio cassette, discusses the conditions at Marion and Lexington, the history of Control Unit prisons, their relationship to U.S. society in general and racism in particular, and some ways in which we can work to abolish them forever	$100 purchase $25 rental
Stanford Prison Experiment Slideshow - this 60 minute slideshow, with audio cassette, reports on an experiment conducted with Stanford students, half of whom were asked to become guards and half prisoners in a model cellblock in the basement of the Psychology Department. Within a short time, the students assumed the roles in a very serious way and the experiment had to be terminated early	$25 rental
Video of "20/20" Show on Marion - this segment from March, 1988 vividly demonstrates the incredible violence of the prison using footage never seen before from inside the prison; includes interviews with prisoners who describe their innermost fear and fury. Also included is a "Today Show" segment on the Lexington Prison women's Control Unit	$8 + $1 post
